While thin hair and baldness are andesirable for men, they are vastly more so for women. Nothing adds more to the adornment of women than rich, heavy, flowing tresses. The hair is too valuable to allow it to suffer from neglect. So just as soon as you notice that your hair is coming out you should use the hair promptly. This feature of Ayer's Hair Vigor is now recognized as most marked, and has brought to this preparation a world-wide eputation.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

You cannot possibly have a splendid head of hair when the scalp is covered with dandruff. We urge upon all who are in y way troubled with dandruff to begin the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor at once.

Do not be deceived by cheap imitations which will only disappoint you. Make sure you get AYER'S Hair Vigor.

Advertiser's Washington Correspondent on _ Gridiron.

Ernest G. Walker, the Advertiser's special correspondent at Washington, was one of the three new members initiated at the annual dinner of the famous Gridiron Club in the national capital on December 9.

The Gridiron Club is a unique organization and maintained by newspaper men. The annual meeting is a time when the club's motto, "Reporters are never present and ladies are always present," is in effect. The motto constructively sets the boundaries alike for freedom and limitation of speech. It is a time when any man, from the chief magistrate of the nation to the humblest scribbler, is made a target of witticisms. Tableau in which distinguished officials are ridiculed are novel. In connection with the initiation of Mr. Walker, the Washington Star says:

Great curiosity was manifested over the curtained stage which stood in the center of the east wall. The company was not left long in suspense. When the oysters had been dispatched the lights

In the center of the stage were three tic arrangement of electric lights gave inquisitor," carrying the "big stick," was seated in a chair and at his left stood his head devil. Near them were three cowled figures placarded as Secretary Root, Secretary Shaw and Secre-

Down the aisle came three members of the club recently elected who were to be initiated, Messrs. E. G. Walker, R. V. Oulahan and J. H. Small, Jr., es corted by a representative of the club. The initiates were placed upon the glowing gridirons, where they squirmed

"Here are three candidates for adnission to the Gridiron Club," said the nterlocutor. "They are in a sad predicment. Two of them were caught red handed in writing special dispatches on cabinet matters. The third is suspected | Tell Shaw and Taft and all the cabinet of having voted the regular republican ticket at the last election. They are Wnisper to Hitchcock softly, now in the hands of the grand inquisitor and his cabinet. May heaven have mercy upon them. They have been doomed to torment until the Keep commission makes good."

"Then their punishment is eternal," remarked President Carson.

A warning flourish of the big stick emphasized disapproval of this criti-

"He dared to ask me if I had attended a cabinet meeting. He has printed in his paper that our head devil owns stock in the government printing office. His alleged election was accomplished by a corrupt and criminal combination masquerading as Gridironers. Where does he stand on the railway rate question?" "Give him transportation and he cares not who makes the rates," whereat the grand inquisitor nods approval and shakes the big stick.

Then Secretary Shaw's proxy advanced to the squirming Walker, and Dated Dec 11, 1905. after a vigorous poke with the toasting fork, declared:

"Let justice be done, though the markets fall. This man came to the Treasury Department and asked me if it were true that the grand inquisitor had instructed me to give twenty-five millions to Wall street. I was on the point of yielding when I glanced at the head devil's letter of instruction which I keep on my desk before me. I show- int in R P 7326 kul 7314, Poupouwela, Props ed no weakness and had no pity for him, but immediately sent for the press association and told them a funny

Secretary Taft then fell upon the writhing Mr. Small with his fork and "This is a George B. Cox republican. Had I not been away on a trip I should have gone home and voted against him. I would swap my presidential chances for a seat on the supreme bench before I would admit him to the club. He is the product of a corrupt machine." "Hold on! You are very much mistaken. This is a Gridiron daisy and was raised by hand. He is a flower of the Small and Early variety."

Then, the grand inquisitor rising. "G-e-n-t-l-e-m-e-n: This is an exremely embarrassing situation. There has been a misunderstanding of orders all around. It is all due to the blundering of my head devil in sending you the letter I dictated. It is needless to say that his mistake is inexcusable, (Turning to Oulahan.) You must remember, Mr. Oulahan, that my head devil is immune. You have been sufficiently toasted. Head devil, release

"Mr. Walker, you must take dinner with me. I have a new book to discuss with you. It is by James B. Reynolds and entitled 'If Fish were Hides, where would Crane Lodge?" "Mr. Small, we will assign you to Secretary Wilson's department. He needs a practical man. He has too many experts in his business. "Boys, we've had a bully time; let us express our renewed relationship in a song." With that the group marched out singing. "Give my regards to Moody, Rember me to Cortelyou,
